souable terms. Telephone call 340. ja7-tr Consular Service Removals. Consular Service Removals.

What is said to be the beginning of a general plan of removals in the consular service took place yesterday, when the President called for the resignation of Julian Gittings of Baltimore, United States consul at Port Hope, Canada. Mr. Gittings, who is now in this city, is unable to give any reason for his dismissal. He will return to his post in a short time in order to close up his affairs and turn the office over to his successor, whose identity has not yet been disclosed.

The practice of certain officers in the revenue cutter service of soliciting official and personal influence to obtain desirable assignments to duty, the revocation of orders, etc., to the detriment of the service, has resulted in the issue of an order by the Secretary of the Treasury that the practice must cease. Violation of the order is declared to be cause for summary action.

The "queen's Own" to be Admitted.

The citizens of Detroit have made application to the State Department to have the "Queen's Own," a British regiment, stationed at Toronto, but about to visit Windsor on the occasion of the queen's birthday celebration, June 24, parade in Detroit with their arms. The request has been granted by the department at the instance of Secretary Alger.

For Colored Excursion Company have purchased the steamer Kent of Baltimere, it is said, and will ply her on the Potomac river between this city and Rock Point, touching at intermediate landings, as an excursion steamer, for the use of the colored people.
